COMMITTEE'S REPORT FOR 1929.

During 1929 Morning and Evening Services have been held, as usual, on 43 Sundays - from October to July inclusive. Dr. Coit has given 24 of the discourses, Mr. Hynd 14, Mr. Stocker 9, Mr. Murphy 6, Dr. Ginsberg 5, and Miss Coit and Miss Virginia Coit 3 each. Prof. Mackenzie, Mrs. Mackenzie, Mr. O'Dell and Mrs. Swanwick have each spoken twice; and the following once each: Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Mr. H.N. Brailsford, Mrs. Cecil Chesterton, Miss Cicely Craven, Mr. A.F.Dawn, Dr. G.P.Gooch, Dr. F. Gray, Dr. Bernard Hollander, Miss Matthews, Miss Hilda D. Oakeley, Mr. Harry Snell, M.P., Miss L. Susan Stebbing and Dr. Jean Wagner. Last July Dr. Coit, Mr. Hynd and Dr. H.J.Bridges spoke in Geneva at an Ethical Service, which had been organised by Dr. Wagner in connection with an International Education Congress.

The Church is to be congratulated upon securing the co-operation of Mr. J. Hutton Hynd as a speaker and as a member of the Committee. His able and inspiring addresses during the year have been highly appreciated not only by our own congregation but by those of the Hampstead and South Place Ethical Societies and of the Oakfield Road Church (advanced Unitarian) of Bristol. Mr. Hynd is the recipient of a fellowship given by the Foundation for Moral Leadership, of which Prof. John Dewey is president and Prof.G.E. Moore of Cambridge, Prof. J.H.Muirhead, Prof. J.S.Mackenzie and other distinguished university professors are members.

Our congregations have been somewhat larger than in the recent preceding years and there is reason to expect that when the general public recovers from the demoralising effects of the War and attention is again turned towards religion and ethics, the seating capacity of our Church will again be practically filled every Sunday, as it was until 1917.

In February a reception was held to welcome Dr. Coit after his four months' visit to America. A Friends' Supper took place in June in celebration of our 37th anniversary, when the guests of honour were Dr. and Mrs. Horace J.Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. G.E.O'Dell, Mr. Stephen Sanders, M.P., and Mrs. Sanders, and Mr. Harry Snell; another, on New Year's Eve; also a Membership supper in November. In February we celebrated our Women Sunday as usual, holding as we do that women have not yet come into their own as spiritual agents, despite the fact that some countries have conferred upon them the privilege of voting. On November 10th, Armistice Sunday, we celebrated the occasion once more by our beautiful and significant ceremony of lowering the flags of various nations upon our Altar to the Ideal of Truth, Beauty and Goodness. We held on New Year's Eve a Remembrance Service in which other Ethical Societies joined and a Watch-night meeting. A Children's Dedication Service took place in July; and in November, a formal Reception of new members. During the year four marriage ceremonies have been performed.

The Committee has pleasure in once more congratulating the Friday Club on the fine spirit of their weekly meetings and on the high quality of the lectures and other entertainments which their Committee has provided.

In February one of our most revered members, Mrs. Alfred Bailey, a woman of rare ability and distinguished character, died at the age of 86; and in September we again suffered irreparable loss by the death of Mrs. Lederer, an oriental scholar, a translator of Sufi poetry and herself a gifted poet.

On behalf of the Church the Committee wishes to express its sincere thanks to Dr.Pryns Hopkins for his gift of a very beautiful Chinese porcelain statue of Kwan-Yin, the Buddhist goddess of compassion. We are also deeply grateful to Mr. Vernon Hill for designing the admirable shrine in which the statue finds an appropriate setting.

All our members will join with the Committee in congratulating the South Place Ethical Society upon the completion and opening of Conway Hall. South Place is the best known, most widely influential and the oldest organisation in this country which bears the word Ethical in its name. Its new access of energy and its increased opportunities of effective propaganda are a benefit to the whole Ethical Movement.

During the year which has just closed our Church has issued two new pamphlets: Mr. Hynd's on The Place of Illusion in Human Life, and Dr. Coit's containing The Principles and Methods of the Ethical Church.

In regard to finances, the Committee would call the attention of all members to the careful economy with which the funds of the Church have always been expended. The freehold of our property (purchased in 1922) cost us only £5,700, whereas one kindred society in London has found it necessary to pay about £40,000 for land not better situated and for a building of approximately similar accommodation, and another society which appeals to a public like our own is spending £1700 a year on rent of rooms. The debt on our new organ was paid off more than a year ago. The mortgage on our freehold now stands at £3275, on which we are paying five per cent interest to the members who hold it. During the year a legacy of £250 was left us by Mrs. Lederer. This gift will reduce the mortgage to £3075. As the Committee must look mainly to legacies for the gradual reduction of this amount, it takes the liberty of suggesting that members who have not already done so should include in their will, or add as a codicil to it, such a clause as the following:

> I give and bequeath to the Ethical Church, whose services are now held at 46, Queen's Road, Bayswater, London, W.2, the sum of /the amount should be written in full/ free of Duty, to apply the same for the general purposes of the said Church; and the receipt of the Hon. Treasurer for the time being of the Ethical Church shall be a sufficient discharge to any executor for such legacy.

FINANCIAL REPORT.

We estimated in April last that owing to necessary repairs to the organ and building our expenses would be £100 more than the preceding year. We therefore appealed for £444. Thanks to the generosity of members and friends we received nearly the full amount asked for (c.f. statement of 1929 Appeal).

It ought to be pointed out that some of the expenses appearing on the right hand side of the General Funds account are larger than usual owing to the fact that they include a fifth quarter, the December quarter of 1928. This applies, for instance, to the fees of Organist, Cantor and Quartette.

It will be seen from the Account that the balance in hand is £164, while the outstanding liabilities (under-estimated) amount to £86, which leaves us with an appreciable balance in hand. This balance is due in large part to the kindness of one member who made a special donation towards the heavy legal expenses of the Church. The remainder was made up by the additional donations contributed by the Friday Club. Neither of these donations were, or could have been, counted upon in making up the estimates of the Church's annual expenditure.
